

Village Link Walk Two, Llanidloes to Llandinam

A picturesque walk of about 4.5 miles, initially along minor roads but then over open farmland and countryside, following The Severn Way to Llandinam.

Leave Llanidloes along Long Bridge Street and, at the roundabout, turn left over the bridge and continue ahead past the hospital on your left.

After about a quarter of a mile, take the next road off to your right, sign-posted for Oakley Park, and continue past Doll Llys Farm for about one and a half miles to the fork where you bear right for about three quarters of a mile to Oakley Park itself.

Continue ahead for a further half a mile to a small cross-roads where The Severn Way is sign-posted to your left and right. Turn left and follow the way-marks along the Severn Way for about two and a half miles until you pass through a field gate onto a track and reach a radio pylon in a field on your right.

Turn right through the wicket gate next to the pylon and follow the footpath along the fence line down to Troedyrhiew house. Turn left along the drive and then right along the road and cross the bridge over the River Severn into Llandinam. The village has a very pretty church and an excellent pub.
